

Gary McGuey

FranklinCovey Education High School
Practice Leader and Consultant

Gary is a highly respected speaker, who brings the rare mix of knowledge, humor and leadership experience to every engagement. “Learn it, Live it and Give it” is the message Gary conveys to his audiences, through a variety of hands on, interactive sessions. Participants are challenged and encouraged and challenged to continue to reflect moving forward. He is a highly sought-after keynote speaker ranging on topics related to leadership, trust, vision and personal development.

Gary McGuey, is the High School Practice Leader for Franklin Covey Education. A former educator and athletic director, Gary has devoted the past 20 years traveling throughout North America as well as internationally. He has visited thousands of schools and has worked with administrators, educators, students and families.

Gary was the former Director of the Teens Division for Franklin Covey and created the first curriculum based on The 7 Habits of Highly Effective Teens. Gary is the co-author of The Inspirational Teacher, focusing on how to develop relationship with students, and The Mentor: Leadership Trumps Bullying, which provides a proactive approach on how to reduce bullying issues in schools. Gary has been an executive coach at the White House.

GARY MCGUEY CAN SPEAK ON THE FOLLOWING TOPICS

- High School
- 4 Disciplines of Execution
- 4 Essential Roles
- Trust
- Vision
- Uleashing Team Potential
- Personal Development