

Ashley Carranco

Leader in Me Coach, Consultant for FranklinCovey, and former principal

Ashley Carranco has the honor and privilege to serve as a Leader in Me Coach and Consultant for FranklinCovey. She has been with FranklinCovey since 2015.

Prior to joining FranklinCovey, Ashley served as a teacher, Instructional Specialist, Assistant Principal and Principal. Her first experience with the 7 Habits of Highly Effective was in college at Baylor University. Each time she delivers or experiences the 7 Habits she gains new knowledge and perspective that impacts her personal and professional life.

She is a lifelong learner passionate about leaving the world better than she found it. Ashley is a dynamic presenter, active listener and has a Strengths-finder top strength of WOO (winning others over). Each of these qualities helps her connect with her audience, resulting in high engagement, impactful connection and meaningful results.

A native Texan, Ashley proudly calls Houston, Texas home. She enjoys spending time with her family, cheering loudly at sporting events, and traveling the world.

ASHLEY CARRANCO CAN SPEAK ON THE FOLLOWING TOPICS

- Team-building
- 4 Essential Roles of Leadership
- Engaging Parents and Families
- Organizational Culture
- Bringing Literacy to Life
- Learning Loss Strategies and Systems