

The 7 Habits of Highly Effective Families

- Extend the work of Leader in Me Schools into the home, helping to create a common vocabulary and the modeling of principle-centered behavior.
- Provide a framework for families to strengthen relationships and reduce the effects of family stressors.
- Improve family functioning, improving educational and social emotional outcomes for children.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFIT*

- Available as a Leader in Me membership benefit, the certification course is self-paced and available at Leaderinme.com.
- Supplementary resources and facilitation materials are also available online.
- Family Facilitator Community provides ongoing expert and peer support.

Certify up to 6 School Staff and/or Parents at Leader in Me Schools

*A current Leader in Me subscription is required to maintain certification.

CERTIFICATION DETAILS

Want to get certified to facilitate 7 Habits of Highly Effective Families for the families at your school ?

It's as easy as 1, 2, 3!

Steps	Activity
1	Learn the Content. Take the self-paced online 7 Habits of Highly Effective Families course.
2	Learn to Facilitate. Watch the instructional videos and familiarize yourself with the Facilitator Materials.
3	Practice what you've learned. Facilitate a practice session with colleagues, upload verification and get your official Certificate!

ENGAGE WITH A FRANKLINCOVEY COACH

To maximize your training and certification experience, a Live Onsite day with a FranklinCovey Education Coach is highly recommended. Onsite coaching can support new facilitators as they practice what they've learned. Coaches can also assist with action planning related to developing participant recruitment and marketing strategies that can ensure workshop success.